The Chiquola Manufacturing Company was founded in 1902. Through constant adoption of new ideas, new methods and modern machinery it has continued to grow and play an important part in the industrial progress of South Carolina.

During this long period of successful operation under the same management, Chiquola has produced more than ONE BILLION YARDS of cotton fabrics; it has purchased more than SIXTY MILLION DOLLARS worth of cotton from the farmers of the South; it has paid MILLIONS of dollars in taxes to the City, County, State, and Federal Governments; it has donated thousands of dollars to schools, churches, orphanages, and charitable organizations; and last but not least, it has paid more than THIRTY-TWO MILLION dollars in wages to the hundreds of fine people who have been on its payroll over the years.

Former CLEMSON MEN occupy important positions in our management and we are fully cognizant of the important part this outstanding institution is playing in the development of the South through the education of our leaders of tomorrow.

When autumn leaves are falling and the strains of "Tiger Rag" resound from the hills of the Blue Ridge, we lend our voice to the plaudits of the multitude with that old familiar refrain, "GO - TIGERS - GO."

Wells Ticketed for Stardom . . .

Coach Frank Howard told his freshman halfbacks the day they reported to practice, "Now boys, if you want to see how to play your position correctly, come out and I'll show you this boy who knows everything there is to know about playing halfback."

The head man of the Tigers was talking about Joel Wells, his dynamic senior halfback who is expected to make a number of All-American teams this fall.

Wells came to Clemson from Dreher High in Columbia in 1953 determined to make good as a college football player. He enjoyed a good year as a freshman and during his sophomore days he led the Tigers in ground gaining with 352 yards on 74 carries for a 4.8 average.

His junior year saw him blossom into stardom and set three conference records. He carried the ball 135 times for 782 yards (a record) for a 5.8 average. His 78.2 yards average per game and the 175 yards he gained against Furman were also conference high marks.

Wells is the cover boy on this year's Official NCAA Football Guide and has been prominently mentioned in all leading national magazines as a player to be reckoned with, both on defense and offense.

"Bussey, Horne and the Alumni will do the kicking this year."

Clemson House

In the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains, you'll find the Clemson House located in a unique setting — right on the campus of Clemson College. Here you will find all of the services of a great metropolitan hotel yet you will be far away from the noise of a large city. And you'll enjoy the beautifully landscaped grounds and the flower beds. The splendid accommodations and the excellent cuisine offered at the Clemson House are combined with warm friendly hospitality and fine service. The Clemson House is a gem among fine hotels, and the rates are almost unbelievably low. All rooms are air conditioned. Four dining rooms and the Tiger Lounge and Coffee Shop. There is swimming, fishing and golf nearby

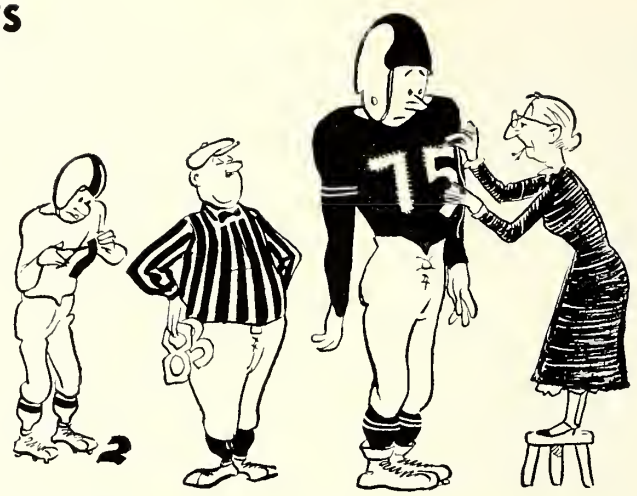
1956 FOOTBALL RULES CHANGES

By Charles W. Tucker, Jr.



We are happy to report that if you understood the football rules last year you will have no difficulty with them this year.

The Rules Committee of the N.C.A.A. is continuing its policy of holding changes to a minimum and constantly working toward standardization of the Rules for the best interests of all concerned.

There are a number of refinements and editorial changes for the sake of clarification, but very few changes of major significance. One of the principal changes this year is to reinstate the rule covering eligible pass receivers to its former status. Last year, if a center, guard or tackle was in an end position, he was not eligible to receive a forward pass when a teammate was behind him or outside of him. This year the rule says, "Any player in an end position on the line of scrimmage may receive a forward pass", so we are right back where we started.

Other changes are as follows:

GAME CLOCK STARTS ON KICK-OFF WHEN BALL IS LEGALLY TOUCHED: In the past the game clock has always started when the kicker's foot made contact with the ball. Now the game clock will not start until the ball has been legally touched.

In the past it would have been possible for the kicking team in the closing seconds of the game with a small lead to protect to run the game clock out by kicking the ball out of bounds or by illegally recovering it before the defensive team had a chance to get possession of the ball. This change will eliminate the possibility of the kicking team taking advantage of such a situation in the future.

CLIPPING AND BLOCKING REDEFINED: Clipping was formerly defined as, "blocking an opponent, other than the runner, from behind." This year clipping is defined as, "running or diving into the back, or throwing the body across the back of the leg or legs of an opponent not carrying the ball."

Blocking was formerly defined as, "obstructing a player with the body." This year blocking is defined as, "obstructing an opponent by contacting him with any part of the blocker's body."

ASSISTING RUNNER IN GAINING FORWARD PROGRESS REDEFINED. For many years, there has been a 15 yard penalty for a teammate helping the ball carrier by pulling, pushing, or lifting him from the ground. This rule has been further strengthened this year by the addition of the phrase, "or charging into the Runner to assist him in gaining forward progress."

TIME OUT TO REPLACE JERSEYS OR PADS CHARGED TO TEAM UNLESS EQUIPMENT IS DANGEROUS TO OTHER PLAYERS: In the past, if a jersey was torn so that the number was illegible or pads were not held in proper position, the referee could give that team a time-out and charge himself. Under this ruling the tear-away jersey became a very popular item for obtaining free time-outs. No more! This year the referee will not allow a free time-out unless, in his opinion, the equipment has definitely become dangerous to other players.

PROCEDURE FOR GETTING A KICKING TEE ONTO THE FIELD: It has always been a moot question as to whether or not it was "coaching from the sidelines" when a kicking tee was thrown onto the field. The rules make it very clear this year as to what the procedure should be. If the game clock is stopped and a tee is thrown onto the field, this is legal. If the game clock is running and a tee is thrown onto the field this will be considered as "coaching from the sidelines" unless an official is notified that a tee was being requested.

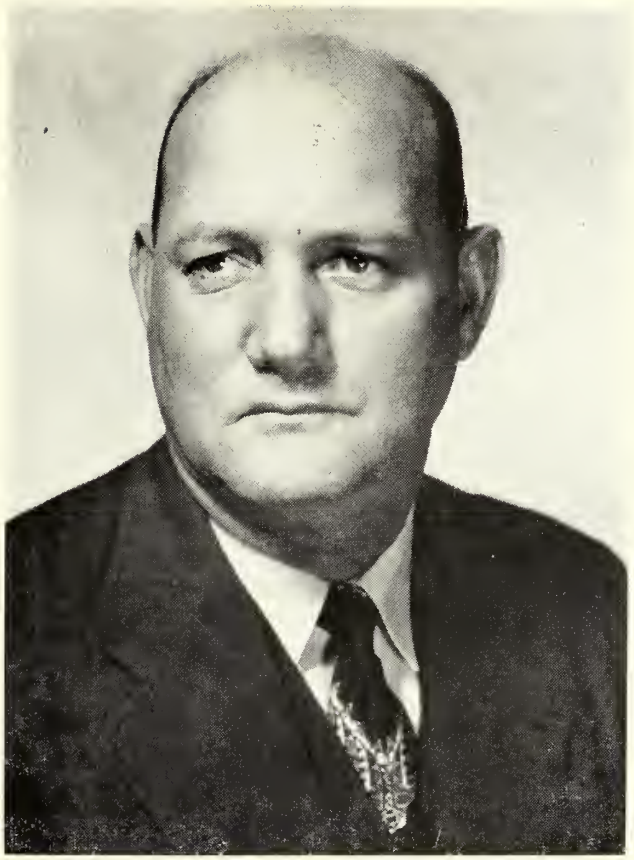
LEGAL USE OF HANDS OR ARMS AFTER A FORWARD PASS HAS BEEN TOUCHED: When a legal forward pass has been thrown, defensive players have the same rights as eligible offensive players to catch the ball, but no player shall deliberately interfere with the other's opportunity to catch the ball. Once the ball has been touched, the complexion of things changes and any eligible receiver who has a reasonable chance to make the catch may use his hands or arms to push an opponent out of the way.

NUMBERING SYSTEM: The Rules Committee has further recommended the following numbering of players for the convenience of spectators, coaches and officials:

Backs	10-49
Centers	50-59
Guards	60-69
Tackles	70-79
Ends	80-89

Such numbering of players makes it much easier to follow the game.

RUBBER COVERED FOOTBALL: For several years the Rules Committee has permitted the use of a rubber covered football provided it was mutually agreed upon by the two contesting teams. This year either team may elect to use a rubber covered ball while on the offense.



About the Coach . . .

Coach Frank Howard is starting his 17th season as head coach at Clemson and his 26th in "full connection" with the school. During his stay here as head man his teams have won 84 games of 152. Three of his teams have played in post-season bowl games. Only seven times have Clemson teams been under the .500 mark and five of these were during the war.

This will be the fourth season the Tigers have run under the "T" and Split-T formation, Howard having been a straight single wing man until 1953. The first year Clemson won 3 and lost 5. Next it was a 5-5 campaign, and last year the Country Gentlemen had a 7-3 mark. Many are labeling Clemson as the "darkhorse" in the conference, but Howard says he cannot taste orange juice this year unless some of the sophs come through in each of the 10 games.

When Howard isn't coaching football or looking into some high school prospect, he can usually be found on the "roast beef" circuit giving out with some of his oft-quoted humorous sayings. He is one of the few who still has fun at his coaching while at the same time, moulding a good team.

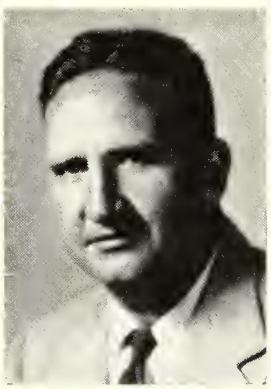
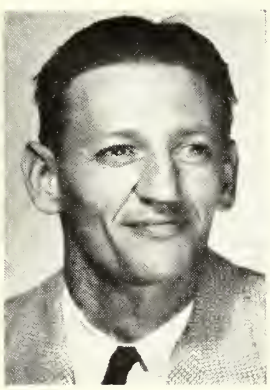
ASSISTANT COACHES . . .

BOB JONES, Clemson '30, hasn't left the local college scene since graduation except to serve in the Army . . . His efforts as end coach have resulted in the Tigers having All-Conference ends four of the past six years — Glenn Smith, Dreher Gaskin and Scott Jackson . . . In the Army Reserve, he's a Brigadier General . . . His boxing teams of the late thirties won several Conference titles.



BOB SMITH, Furman '34, is the first man to take over full line responsibilities at Clemson since Frank Howard arrived on the campus 26 years ago . . . A versatile coach, he has directed five Tiger baseball teams, one to the Atlantic Coast Conference championship . . . He came to Clemson in 1950 as "T" coach for the scrubs . . . He was formerly head coach at Furman University.



BANKS McFADDEN, Clemson '40, is on the varsity staff as defensive backfield coach . . . did handle both basketball and football duties, but gave up the cage game this past summer, after 10 years . . . the greatest college athlete in Clemson history, he was first team All-American in both football and basketball and still holds three state records in track.

CARL WISE, King's College '37 . . . Former head coach at Washington and Lee, he specializes as backfield coach, a job he held at W&L, Pennsylvania, Bainbridge Navy and Hamilton (Canadian Professional League) before coming to Clemson . . . A fine student of the game with ability to express himself, he's charged with giving the Tiger offense more scoring punch.

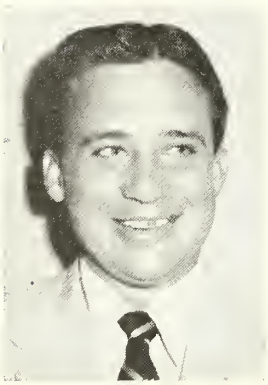
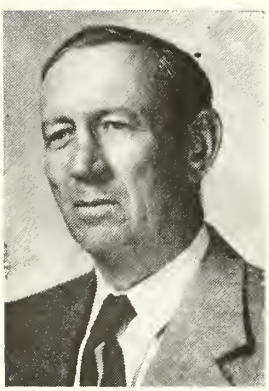
ASSISTANT COACHES . . .

COVINGTON (Goat) McMILLAN, Clemson '30, returned to Clemson as backfield coach in 1937 after first serving as head coach at Griffin (Ga.) High and as an assistant at Furman . . . Today he is head freshman coach . . . An All-South tailback at Clemson, he's coached some of the school's finest backs since arriving on the campus—Banks McFadden, Bobby Gage, Ray Mathews, Fred Cone, etc.



DON WADE, Clemson '52, returned to Clemson after one year of coaching at Waynesboro, Ga. . . . Was first string linebacker on Orange and Gator Bowl teams . . . In addition to coaching the freshman line, Wade does a lot of talent scouting at Clemson . . . In the spring he stays busy as freshman baseball coach.



A. W. (Rock) NORMAN, Roanoke '13, came to Clemson in the late 1930's after first serving as head basketball and track coach at Furman, South Carolina and The Citadel . . . One of the state of Virginia's great natural athletes in history, Rock is still active today . . . Cross country and head track coach, he was varsity basketball coach before Banks McFadden took over.

HERMAN McGEE began getting experience as a small colored boy many years ago under the watchful eyes of the late "Chappie" . . . Has been in charge of the training room since the 1949 season . . . Also keeps up with all the football equipment in working with the team managers . . . Is a favorite of the athletes.

Is It Running on All Cylinders?

No matter how expensive a motor is, if it is not running on all cylinders, it's obviously not operating at maximum efficiency. The same thing can be said of a football team with its eleven "cylinders" and of a business such as ours.

For example, there are the "cylinders" of reasonable price — of good quality in workmanship and materials — of conscientious, dependable service — and finally of honest dealings, all of which if operating properly make for a well-run business.

We strive to keep our "cylinders" in good working order. This requires constant checking and eternal vigilance and a strong desire to keep on improving. We are thankful that this determination and effort on our part has brought us into the honored position of being one of America's outstanding specialists, not only in the manufacture of military school and college uniforms, but in the servicing of the contracts pertaining to them.

As the official supplier of uniforms to Clemson since 1950 we are proud to be represented in this football program and express the wish that the Clemson Tigers will continue to operate on all "cylinders."

OUTCOME TODAY BEING WATCHED BY MANY

Football season is fast sinking with the sunset but Clemson's determination and desire will have to be at high noon today to take a band of invaders from Greenville if the Tigers want a trip back to Miami New Year's Day.

Back a couple of years ago when this Furman-Clemson game was scheduled people looked upon it as another cross-county rivalry cropping up again and nothing more than the score was expected to be carried in the newspapers outside of North and South Carolina and Georgia.

But today this game will be watched from all corners of the earth with Clemson men wondering if the Tigers will be downed by this upset-minded group from Furman or if the Country Gentlemen can come through with their seventh win of the season and land in the fourth post season game in eight years. There is no doubt who will be the favorite here this afternoon. The question is: Will the big scoreboard at the west end of the field go along with all of this pre-game guessing?

Furman has been taking it on the chin from these Clemson Tigers quite a bit lately. In fact, Coach Frank Howard's bunch of small town boys playing big time football have bumped the Hurricane down the scale the last 13 times the two teams have met. Not since 1936 when Furman won 12-0 and the scoreless deadlock the following year has the Hurricane been the eventual winner. Things have been close several times, but that is all.

In 1948 Clemson was undefeated at this game and came through with a 41-0 win. In 1950 things were going good again and only a tie was on the books when these two teams met. This time the Tigers widened the margin to 57-2. Two losses hung on the Tigers in '51 but there was the possibility of another bowl trip. Furman helped the cause in losing 34-14.

Thus, this 40th meeting between these two clubs can have a lot to say about another bowl trip. Either the Tigers' hopes will sink with the sun or they will still be at high noon about 4:30 p.m.

1956 TEAM IS RANKED WITH BEST OF THEM

Clemson has now been in battle with nine football opponents this year. Six found the going too tough, two found it pretty even on game day and one showed its superiority. Should the Tigers win today—as they are supposed to do—this band of football players will rank with some of the best teams ever assembled here, and that's dating back to 1896.

A victory this afternoon would give the Tigers a percentage of .800 (counting a tie game a half game won and a half game lost). Only seven other teams in the last 61 years have equalled this mark: 1948, 10-0, 1.000; 1900, 6-0, 1.000; 1950, 9-0-1, .950; 1939, 9-1, .900; 1902, 6-1, .857; 1938, 7-1-1, .833; and 1930, 8-2, .800.

Looking at the situation strictly on a won-loss basis, the predicted triumph today would actually figure, statistically speaking, 8 and 2. Six previous teams have equalled or surpassed this number of wins: 1948, 11-0-0; 1950, 9-0-1; 1939, 9-1-0; 1930, 8-2-0; 1928, 8-3-0; and 1929, 8-3-0.

Today's football edition started out in September a favorite in about three of the upcoming games, an underdog in about three and toss ups were thrown at the other four games. Very few people would hazard a guess that Clemson would be in contention for a bowl bid December 1.

Clemson showed well enough against five conference teams to take its first ACC title with a 4-0-1 record, and now stands 2 and 1 against non-family competition.

The traditional opener against Presbyterian went about as expected score-wise, but the Blue Hose presented a vaulted running attack. Next came the respected Florida Gators, a team which was supposed to take care of the Tigers by at least two touchdowns. But after losing a 14-0 lead, Clemson fought back to gain a 20-20 tie.

Clemson had a pretty rough time with N. C. State until the final quarter. On the first play of the last period the Pack pushed across a tally and the Tigers came storming back to score twice and win 13-7.

Wake Forest became the next victim of the improving Clemsons and the Deacons tasted a 17-0 loss. South Carolina dropped its second straight Big Thursday game, 7-0 and the Tigers began to hear some bowl talk. But five more games still remained to be played.

Clemson reached its zenith against Virginia Tech and flattened the high flying Gobblers, 21-7. Sub-par playing then hit the Tigers and before things could improve for a 7-0 win over Virginia last Saturday, Clemson had been tied 6-6 by a nothing-to-lose Maryland club and had taken its first loss (21-0) at the hands of Miami.

So the Tigers, named by practically every sports writer in the Atlantic Coast Conference area as the "dark horse" this year have played their role. They jumped into the lead at the outset and have set the pace throughout the year. Frank Howard's entry into the Orange Bowl race, picked to "show" have virtually made "win" tickets legal tender. The last tenth of a mile will be run today.

About the College . . .

CLEMSON ESTABLISHED

On November 27, 1889, the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of South Carolina drew up an Act of Acceptance of the will of Thomas Green Clemson authorizing the establishment of Clemson as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of this state. Clemson was a distinguished scientist of his day and served as the nation's first superintendent (now secretary) of Agriculture. He married the daughter of John C. Calhoun, the noted Southern statesman

LOCATION AND SIZE

Located on the former plantation of Calhoun and Clemson in the northwestern corner of South Carolina, thirty miles from the foothills of the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains, the college has grown from an institution with 446 students when it opened its doors in 1893 to the present day enrollment of 3,350. The campus embraces over 29,000 acres.

THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Robert Franklin Poole became president of Clemson in 1940, succeeding the late Dr. Enoch Sikes. Born in Laurens County, S. C., December 2, 1893, Dr. Poole was graduated from Clemson in 1916. He received his Ph.D. degree from Rutgers in 1921. He spent 17 months in France and Germany with the Aerial Photography Service during World War I. He was assistant plant pathologist at the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station from 1920 through 1926. Dr. Poole went to North Carolina State College in 1926 and remained there until he accepted the Clemson presidency in 1940. He is a past president of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities, the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

PHYSICAL PLANT

Clemson's physical property has grown from a value of $250,000 in 1893 to $25,000,000 today. There has been a great expansion since World War II. Construction added in this time includes a new agricultural engineering building, chemistry building, boiler plant, apartment hotel and faculty homes, ceramics building, laundry, a new $4 million dormitory, and a $4 million agricultural center.

EDUCATIONAL DIVISIONS

The College's main divisions include the Schools of Agriculture, Engineering, Arts and Sciences, Education, and Textiles. Graduate work can be obtained in most of the schools. Thirty-two curriculums are offered in the five schools.

The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame

The National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, composed largely of former football players, was organized in 1947 to honor those men, who as players and coaches, have made amateur football the game of American youth.

Since then, its aims have been expanded to include offering those directly responsible for the conduct and administration of the game, assistance to help preserve intercollegiate football in its rightful position as a beneficial and necessary function of our educational system.

The Foundation feels strongly that there is a demand that these aims continue to be realized. It is engaged in a program designed to answer that demand and looks to those who share its determination for support.

This support comes largely from its members, organized in chapters stretching from coast-to-coast, whose dues range from five dollars annually. Through these chapters, the Foundation unites, in one group, the varied forces responsible for the conduct of the game with the man who has played it and made it what it is today. For him, the ex-football player, the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame is particularly an opportunity for expression, perhaps for the first time in a national way.

Chapters are organized with the help of the national organization and elect their own officers. In addition to their activities locally, they elect state officers, who in turn, attend the Foundation's annual Football Congress, during which players and coaches are elected to the Hall of Fame. Nominations are submitted by Foundation members. There is selective voting by the press, and final selections by a national Honors Court.

To date, out of the thousands who have participated in the game, 99 players and 45 coaches, representing 52 colleges and universities, have been so elected. In many cases, they have been honored at Hall of Fame game ceremonies conducted on the very fields of their success in view of thousands of spectators. This Fall, approximately 11 such games have already been scheduled to honor recent nominees.

Guiding all its activities is the continuing belief of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, that amateur football is one of the principle breeding grounds of that typically American phenomenon known as "the winning spirit." This spirit finds its truest expression in the amateur athlete whose greatest reward and chief goal is the development of his own excellence. Football properly played and properly administered, sets this standard.

The Foundation believes, and critics of the game have tacitly agreed, that there is something wrong with the way in which it is conducted off the field if educators allow their institutions to bid for students and if playing "for the love of the game" is replaced by "What's in it for me?".

These trends toward professionalism in amateur sport have been the motivating factors behind the recent actions by various governing bodies within the game itself to bring football back into proper perspective and, as such, have had the Foundation's unqualified support.

In this connection, the Foundation's efforts have been directed toward mobilizing the constructive forces in the game to create a greater national awareness of the basic and irreplaceable values which the playing of football contributes toward the best education of American youth.

The Foundation also endorses without reservation the increasingly high standards being set in the classroom to answer the country's demand for better trained citizens. It believes just as strongly, however, that educators must support the same standard of excellence on the playing field.

In other words, the Foundation feels that football, properly played and properly administered, must be emphasized as an essential adjunct to the values obtained through a formal education. Its work has, and will continue to be directed toward this end.

Those wishing to help further these aims by joining the Foundation may do so by contacting The Executive Secretary, National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Basketball in 1956-57 . . .

Clemson enters the 1956-57 basketball season with nearly the same team which won 9 and lost 17 last year and led the conference in scoring with 86 points per game.

The new look for the Tigers this year will be from the bench where Press Maravich takes over for Banks McFadden, 10 years the Clemson cage coach, but who will stick to football altogether from now on.

Maravich came to Clemson from Aliquippa, Pa., high school after two successful seasons. Previous to that he had turned out winning teams at Davis-Elkins, West Virginia, West Virginia Wesleyan and several service teams.

Bill Yarborough, Vince Yockel, Tom Comeron, Gene Seay and Ed Brinkley—all starters last year—will be back for more tough ACC round ball. (Yarborough has been declared eligible for the first 13 games).

Dick Yeary, who showed promise of becoming the squad's playmaker, and Eddie Moncrief, another capable reserve of '55-'56, are both due back. Add to these seven Fred DeBerry, Nick Carter, Robert Lindsay, Craig Hoffman and Lawrence Dunn from the freshman squad of last year, and Maravich will probably mould a team capable of leaving the ACC cellar.
